

33 Dundas Street NARRANDERA NSW

2  1

This quaint two-bedroom home is centrally located, close to schools and the main street of Narrandera.

The house has recently been refurbished throughout, with the bathroom being the main point of interest being completely replaced with a modern open style shower space, large bath, vanity, and toilet.

Ample space and storage in the combined kitchen and dining areas.

There is a spacious living area adjacent to the kitchen, with the house also featuring a large veranda at the front and the rear of the house with loads of space for alfresco living.

Outside, the large back and front yards are fully fenced, the home offers a single covered carport area and also a garden shed.
