3  2  4

Perfectly positioned just a short stroll to the business district and most schools and sporting grounds, 185 De Boos Street is a generous, well cared for weatherboard home with plenty of space and charm.

Inside the home boasts a fresh coat of paint, the wide hall and high ceilings typical of its era. The two main bedrooms at the front of the home are generous doubles with beautiful coloured glass windows. The master has full-length floor to ceiling built in robes and new ceiling fan. The third bedroom is also generous in size. Towards the rear of the home is a fourth single bedroom/office/sewing room.

The living area has good carpet flooring and cosy inbuilt woodfire and mantelpiece. Alternative heating and cooling options include an LPG gas bayonet, split system in the
