

124 De Boos Street TEMORA NSW

4  2  2

Set on a 1013 sqm lot of general residential zoned land in one of Temora's premier locations is this free-standing property with plenty of history. Originally constructed in 1912 for the Narraburra Shire Council, this landmark property has been more recently loved and maintained by the Temora Senior Citizens Group.

Offering the opportunity to secure a beautiful historic property in the heart of town, With high ceilings, large rooms and plenty of open space living, this property's potential is endless.

Whilst the building has been set up for office space, there is a vast range of potential for the building to be converted into a large family home.
